In the Shadow of the Light Todd A. Gipstein

A paranormal investigator spends the night on Ledge Lighthouse and goes mad. Years later, a writer discovers his field kit and decides to unravel the mystery of what really happened. Did the investigator encounter the ghost of "Ernie," who legend says haunts the light? Or did he succumb to the fear created by demons of his own design? To find out, the writer explores the story and spends a night alone on the lighthouse, where the shadows hold secrets. This journey into the darkest realms of the paranormal, the human mind, and the lighthouse itself is one where dreams become real and reality becomes a dream. Keep the lights on and an eye on the shadows as you read this nerve-wracking psychological thriller.

Todd Gipstein has worked in media for 40 years. Since 1987, he has worked with National Geographic as a photographer, producer and lecturer. Todd grew up in New London, Connecticut, where the story of "In the Shadow of the Light" takes place. He is a graduate of Harvard College, where he studied writing and filmmaking. Todd is president of the Ledge Light Foundation, which is dedicated to restoring New London Ledge Lighthouse. Together, Todd and his wife Marcia, a photo-editor and yoga teacher, have spearheaded the preservation of the lighthouse, creation of a museum inside it, and often serve as tour guides. When not working on the lighthouse, they travel the world to photograph and lecture for National Geographic, screen films at festivals, and attend magic conventions.
