City of Syn: Gateway to Erotica Nicole Cade

From the sweet, soft desire of a mountain retreat to the raw, twisted deviance of a freak, City of Syn takes you on a wild ride through some of the hottest adventures in erotica. Written by Poisynangel, City of Syn offers fun and exciting tales of sex on a city bus, illfated lovers on the beach, one girl's rock and roll fantasy, and many more. With kisses that make you melt and games of truth or dare gone astray, Poisynangel heats up the pages with her poetic scenes of passion and lust.

"I don't know who first dubbed me a bad girl. Maybe no one, maybe I just fell so far from the graces of being a good girl that it's all that was left to call me. I wasn't this way as a child, or even, really, a teenager. A psychiatrist I saw in my early years of college ventured the term "sexual deviant." That never made much sense to me. To me, deviant meant to venture off the beaten path. I'm not taking a path that many other people haven't taken. I'm just better at it than most." - Syn (Diary of a Bad Girl)
