At the age of 24 years old Alex meets Matthew Harris, a very shy but bright man who falls helplessly in love with her. He had never met anyone like her before and in no time at all, became absorbed into her world, mesmerised by her unique charm. Together their lives are transformed, living a life she had longed for and that he had barely dreamed of but equally as important, giving each other the 'precious gift of love'. Matt worshiped her and she loved him. She had it all; she was finally happy or so she thought. A family tragedy hits the Thomas household, creating a huge impact on Alex. It is due to this tragedy that allows Hope Reagan to enter her life; a chance meeting that would change Alex's life forever. It is from this bond between two beautiful girls that demonstrates to Alex exactly what she has been missing out on all these years, discovering what she had perceived as 'happiness' for so long, had in fact eluded her up until now. Could Alex cope with this new life that Hope brought with her? Moreover, could she let go of everything that she had spent years on building up, including Matt? This is an enchanting story of ambition, confidence and the will to succeed in spite of life's knock backs. But this is without doubt a love story of the deepest kind, illustrating desire, passion, secrecy and deceit that will change all of their lives forever.
