Collectors Guide to Inkwells: Identification and Values, Book 2 Veldon Badders

Collector Books published Mr. Badders's first book on inkwells over two years ago and sales of that book have been very good. Now Veldon Badders has completed an all-new book. This fresh look at inkwells was compiled not to replace Book I, but to be a companion volume; it does not include any repeats of that first book. Book II has over 750 full-color photographs complete with sizes, dates, composition, histories of manufacture, and of course, current market values. Also included in this beautiful book are chapters on pottery & porcelain, crystal, glass, copper, brass, cast iron, wood, stone, plastic, and more. Inkwells are made of virtually every material imaginable and have been produced for centuries - the first dating back into the 1600s. Current values range from as little as $20.00 into the thousands of dollars. Collectors need this resourceful book to keep abreast of ever-changing values. 1998 values. AUTHOR BIO: Veldon Badders has collected inkwells for many years, and, along with the help of his wife, Gail, has written two popular volumes on the subject. REVIEW: This book contains no repeats from the author's first volume. Hundreds of inkwells are shown in full color, classified by type of material - porcelain & pottery, crystal & glass, copper, brass & related materials, cast iron, wood, stone, and even travelers inkwells.
