Leather & Lace: Inferno Glory MC (#1) J. A. Fredericks

This is a serial and intended for readers over 18. The installments are not novel length.

The day Harley Sonnicks is released from a three year prison sentence for a crime she didn't willingly commit, she returns to the only family she has left—the Inferno Glory MC. But the club's president isn't ready to forgive her for past sins and turns her away, forcing her to trust in a new club member who's arguably the sexiest man she's ever laid eyes on.

Colt Sawyer, a young military veteran like the other MC members, is elusive and doesn't have much to do with the women throwing themselves at him until Harley comes riding into his life on her own motorcycle. Together with his best friend and fellow MC member Ranger, Colt will do everything in his power to remind Harley what it's like to be pleased by a man and make her feel at home despite the reluctance of the MC.

Things take an unexpected turn when Harley's worldly possessions are ripped away, forcing her to rethink her future. But she isn't a pathetic princess in need of saving and is reluctant to accept help. Prison made her hard, forcing her to guard her feelings at all costs. So when blue eyed Colt does inexplicable things to both her body and heart, she's forced down a dark path of passion and desire that threatens all the safeguards she's set in place.
