This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1908 edition. Excerpt: ...is annulled. (2) Train No. 3 due to leave Maples Saturday, February 29th, is annulled. Adding "from Ayr" or "between Ayr and Greennock," when appropriate. This order takes away all rights of the train annulled, and authorizes any train or person receiving it to use the track as if the train annulled were not on the time-table. If a train is annulled to a point named, its rights beyond that point remain unaffected. When a train has been annulled it must not be again restored under its original number by special order. Form I.--Annulling or Superseding an Order. 179. Order No is annulled. This will be numbered, transmitted and signed for as other orders. An order superseding another may be given, adding "This supersedes Order No "or adding "instead of" EXAMPLE. Train No. 1, car 201, and Train No. 2, car 202, will meet at siding 9 instead of siding 10. An order which includes more than one specified movement must not be superseded. An order that has been annulled or superseded must not be again restored by special order under its original number. In the address of an order annulling or superseding another order the train first named must be that to which the rights were given by the order annulled or superseded, and the order must be given to the train whose rights were annulled or superseded first before the order is sent for other trains. DUTIES OF EMPLOYES. TRAIN DISPATCHERS Train Dispatchers Report To. 180. Train dispatchers report to and receive their instructions from the Superintendent. Duties of Dispatchers. 181. They will issue orders in the name of the Superintendent or other designated authority, for the movement of trains; see that they are transmitted and recorded in the manner prescribed...
