Classic Albums: The Kinks Are The Village Green Preservation Society Andrew Hickey

While it had no hit singles, and was the first Kinks album not to chart, The Kinks Are The Village Green Preservation Society is widely considered one of the best, most inventive and most evocative albums of the 1960s.

In this twenty-one page essay, an extract from the forthcoming book Preservation: The Kinks' Music 1964-1974, Andrew Hickey (author of Monkee Music, The Beatles In Mono, and The Beach Boys On CD Vol 1) examines the album track-by-track, as well as the other tracks on the 3-CD deluxe version of the album.
