Ford in Touring Car Racing: Top of the class for fifty years Graham Robson

Ford has been consistently successful in saloon car racing, from the very first performances of the 1950s, through Sierra RS500 Cosworth domination in the 1980s, to the standard-setting Mondeo victories of the 1990s. For nearly 50 years, European Fords have been winning Touring Car Championships in Britain, Europe, and all around the world. This fact-filled volume chronicles every Ford program, car, success, and development. Packed with technical and historical insights, this lavishly illustrated work also includes interviews with drivers, engineers and team managers from every decade.
