Need a virtual PA? Then Polly Jones is your girl!

Polly Jones is taken aback when a new client asks her to investigate the Robertson family business in Devon, after all, a 'virtual assistant' doesn't usually leave their home office! But she needs the work – and less proximity to an endless supply of tea and biscuits can only be a good thing right? So she sets off, with energetic puppy Rosie close by her side.

Polly's new job isn't quite in her comfort zone... Arriving in the small fishing village where everyone knows everyone's business, any upsides (all those yummy scones and clotted cream) of course have their downside - she's completely forgotten to pack her sea legs, and the temptingly handsome Will Robertson is making her job difficult at every turn.

It's so much easier to keep things strictly professional in the virtual world – but with no e-mail to hide behind Polly must admit that Will's smile is incredibly, deliciously distracting...

Praise for Jennifer Bohnet

'...it was such a lovely, sweet read that I didn't want to end!' - Chick Lit Reviews

'What a sweet romance, set by the seaside, starring appealing characters, namely likeable Polly, mysterious Daniel and hunky Will. An intriguing plot with a satisfying ending.' - The Virtual Bookcase
