All men are not created like Daddy. That singular truth has sent thousands, if not millions, of unsuspecting women in search of Mr. Right on a journey filled with liars, losers and lunatics. Life After Jerks is the woman's field guide to spotting, identifying, and surviving the many types of jerks that plague society. The authors have the experience to back up the observations and claims. Between the two, they have nearly a century of life experiences, four ex-Mr. Rights and an impressive list of Mr. Right Nows. Things you'll learn about jerks: • Daddy was right about Bad Boys, darn it. • If he seems too good to be true... he probably is. • Never accept collect phone calls from a correctional facility. • There can only be one pretty person per couple. Make sure it is you. • Creative lying is an art form. • Beware of Elvis impersonators. Every episode described in this book is ABSOLUTELY true. The authors find that truth is stranger than fiction, some things you just can't make up, and eventually you can learn to laugh at any thing. There is Life After Jerks. It's a damn fine life indeed.
