Driven by the ghosts of her past, New York Times journalist Solana Trent lives for one goal – to bring down the mob. After her first successful exposé destroyed one crime family, she now has her sights set on another, namely the notorious syndicate spearheaded by the charismatic, devastatingly handsome acquisition mogul Raine Mathison. While Solana is astonished to discover the true extent of Mathison’s power, more startling is their magnetic attraction to each other. Seduced by the scent of a story, Solana raises the stakes in her hunt for Mathison, but when her reckless ambition lands her in the mob boss’s crosshairs, she becomes the hunted in a game for her life. A battle of wits and wills ensues, culminating in a passionate encounter neither one of them had anticipated. Solana suspects there’s much more to the intense, complicated man she’s been investigating, whereas Mathison finds himself entertaining unorthodox plans for the beautiful, dangerous journalist in his debt.
