Kenichi is a modern day ronin. His life depends on mastering the university entrance examination he'll take for the second time in a few short weeks. Succeed and gain admittance to one of the most prestigious universities in Japan. Fail again, though, and he'll have to settle for a second tier school that produces reliable middle management for companies no one has ever heard of.

He's taken an entire year to prepare, attending a prep school by day and holing up in his room by night. No time for sun. No time for friends, which is just as well since his friends passed their examinations and left him behind. No time for girls, either: just the nagging, hollow sensation he's missing out on something vital.

It hasn't been easy on Yukari, either. She's done everything possible to support his studies, but it hasn't been enough. The failure is hers as much as his. Her husband, distant at the best of times, takes refuge in his career. Yukari is left a lonely hostage in her own home to Kenichi's struggle.

With the New Year's holidays approaching, Yukari senses Kenichi crumbling beneath the weight he bears. Her efforts to comfort him seem more futile with every passing day. Only this afternoon she found him not at his desk, but daydreaming at his window as a pretty girl walked by.

She catches a glimpse of his frustration when she interrupts his bath—he has no time to linger when he needs a good night's sleep in order to rise before dawn to resume his studies. His cock looks massive in his hand, and is clearly in need of release.

She understands men have needs, but there's no time for that now—Kenichi needs to be at his desk. She'll do whatever it takes to keep him there.

Study Break is a 16,000-word erotic story.
