Los evangelios apócrifos (Spanish Edition) Anonimo

En diciembre de 1945, en un pueblo egipcio llamado "Pueblo de Alabanza", un campesino halló cerca de mil páginas en papiro divididas en códices, cuya antigüedad se remonta al siglo IV d.C. Fue una gran suerte que tales manuscritos se descubriesen en el siglo XX y no con anterioridad, ya que si su descubrimiento se hubiese producido en la época en que la iglesia católica se valía de la Inquisición como instrumento corrector, habrían terminado en la hoguera al considerarse textos heréticos, apócrifos. Estos textos son unas traducciones realizadas hace unos 1500 años. Se trata de 13 manuscritos traducidos al copto de originales griegos. Sus autores ofrecen versiones de las vidas de Jesús, María y José. La importancia de estos evangelios es que fueron escritos por personas que vivieron en la época de Jesús (recordemos que ninguno de los autores de los evangelios canónicos vivió en ese período).
