Musical Instruments of Ancient Hawai`i: A Quick Reference Leilehua Yuen

At just over 2,000 words, this very concise guide to the different musical instruments and implements used in Ancient Hawai`i is a quick and handy reference.

Over the years, many of these instruments and implements fell into disuse. Today, well into the renaissance of Hawaiian culture, they are making a comeback. It is hoped that this reference will add to the interest in preserving and using these instruments and implements in traditional music, as well as in new compositions.
