Candy Cane Matthew Reeve

Candy Cane: The biggest star on the planet. You've bought the t-shirt. You've downloaded the album. You know the song - that overplayed and exploited piece of her soul which has lost all meaning. In order to move forward, and re-love a life a billion would crave, Candy Cane must learn to fall in love with music, and that song in particular, one last time. Candy Cane is on a journey; a drive through what she perceives as normality: work, friendship, carpet-stained rehearsal rooms. The fear of drowning in the glitz and glamour of show business is all around. Her every move dictated by the music.
