Are you facing a Big Exam? One which is critical to your career plans? Will you need to study a mountain of material in a short amount of time?

Does the following list of worries sound familiar to you?

- Amount of Material – makes it impossible to remember it all
- Information overload – repeated reviewing will numb my mind
- Understanding – how to review quickly yet really absorb it
- Time -- not enough time to study this much material
- Balance – limited time will shortchange some subjects
- Chores -- unavoidable activities (cooking, cleaning, commuting) will steal study time
- Sleep Deprivation – sleep lost studying will leave me poor physical condition on exam day
- Exhaustion – trying to study this much material will make me doze off
- Lack of Confidence – this list will leave me lacking confidence to pass my Big Exam

Your solution is the Talk & Walk Study System, developed by the author in order to pass his Big Exam, a state bar exam.

Whatever the nature of your Big Exam, this study system will give you control over lack of time to study. This is not the usual find-a-quiet-place-with-no-distractions advice, which does not solve the big problem -- the huge volume of material involved. Here is a practical and effective way to handle that unusual challenge.
