KTWS, 98.3, The Twins plays classic rock in Central Oregon. This book humorously documents some of the radio stunts involving the author and the disc jockeys at The Twins. Those who listen to The Twins are referred to as "Twinsters" and their motto is, "Being a Twinster is not a spectator sport." Most of the events described in this family-humor book actually happened except for the part where the author finally loses that last 15 pounds and becomes an exotic dancer. Names would have been changed to protect the innocent but there aren't any.
