Have you ever experienced a turning point that changed the rest of your life? Did you hold on to everything that you believed in? Or did you abandoned it just as cruel and unfair as life was to you?

Three women from different backgrounds endure unbelievably unfortunate trials that forever change the course of their lives with their every choice thereafter leading them further into self-destruction and rock bottom, as they mold their identities and self-worth based on the labels of other people. These women find it difficult to forgive, trust again, love, and live life. They have turned their back on God, and they believe that He has turned his back on them.
