What happens when you ask a group of writers in Northern Manitoba to delve into the deepest, darkest recesses of their minds to produce works of weird fiction for your Winter reading entertainment?

They write stories: spooky stories. And poems: pulse-pounding poems.

They write them very, very well.

One writer even inked a graphic novel for you to feast your eyes on.

What will you find between these foreboding covers?

There's only one way to find out.

Read this book... if you dare.

No animals were harmed in the making of this book except for the editors, but trust me, they had it coming...
