L'Opium du peuple: Introduction de la Contribution à la critique de la philosophie du droit de Hegel (La Petite Collection) (French Edition) Karl Marx

Karl Marx (1818-1883) rédige sa Contribution à la critique de la philosophie du droit de Hegel après avoir fui la censure pratiquée en Prusse dans le Paris bouillonnant de la monarchie de Juillet. En 1844, il fait paraître son Introduction en revue. Dès les premières lignes, il mène tambour battant sa critique des régimes réactionnaires en Allemagne et s'attaque à la question politique de la religion : « Le véritable bonheur du peuple exige que la religion soit supprimée en tant que bonheur illusoire du peuple. » Sa qualification d'« opium du peuple » marque les esprits et passera à la postérité.

Le jeune Marx opère sa mue : sa critique radicale de la religion est la première pierre de sa lutte politique, contre l'exploitation de l'homme par l'homme, vers la Révolution.
