Prairie Thunder (The Kincaids Book 2) Donna Ball, Shannon Harper

THE KINCAIDS: Daring men and women of courage and vision, the proud sons and daughters of a savage frontier. They set out to conquer a wilderness, and end up forging the destiny of a magnificent new nation.

Guided by the legendary frontiersman Boothe Carlyle, a wagon train of missionaries sets out across the prairie in 1837 to bring their brand of civilization to Indian country. But soon they discover they have more to fear than the untamed savages they are determined to save... and that the most dangerous demons may be the ones they have brought with them.

BOOTHE CARLYLE

Plagued by the memory of a tragic fool's mission, he sets out to tame the wilderness that once defeated him...and to conquer the ghosts of his haunted past.

KITTY KINCAID

Driven by devotion and love, she finds her destiny and her heart on the perilous trail west...and leaves tender girlhood behind.

BEN ADAMSON

On his wedding day, a madman drowned his dreams in blood. Now he looks to a remarkable child-woman to heal his ravaged soul.

OLIVER SHERROD

His youthful heart hardened by bitterness, he seeks vengeance on the hero he once worshiped: the man he holds responsible for the death of his sister.
