Pine Ridge Shifters Book 2 (STANDALONE NOVEL)

Selfish, reckless, self destructive and out of control—the reports for fiery, curvy, and emotionally damaged red-head, Caz Watson, don't make good reading.

Caz Watson trusts no one. Hell, she doesn't even trust herself. She knows that everyone fails you. Everyone. It was a hard lesson she learned as a child and one she's never forgotten.

Nobody stays, nobody cares, not when the chips are down. She's got herself ... and that's all.

Having worked hard to build a life of meaning and purpose, wealthy bear shifter Doctor Brad Clayton is appalled when he discovers fate's cruel joke. Caz Watson, with her foul mouth and her defiant and defensive nature, is his mate.

He likes order. He likes to be in control. He has to stay busy to keep his loneliness at bay.

He needs to be able to protect the people around him. It's what drove him—with his fellow alpha, eagle shifter Jake, to create a safe haven in Pine Ridge and the region around it. A place where people can go when their life is in ruins and they have nowhere left to go.

Brad risks everything to prove to Caz that she no longer has nothing to lose. She has him. She will always have him no matter how hard she pushes him away. He is hers through heartache and danger ... and someday, she will be his to love.

Can Caz learn to accept and trust Brad's love? Can she let go of the hurt learned from years of abandonment? She wants to but the risk of trusting is just too much to ask ...

This is a full stand-alone novel of 55,000 words, or about 250 pages. It contains steamy hot scenes and adult language.
