A letter is written, a secret revealed and kept, not without perilous consequences.

Tess Parker is a childless woman contacted by a girl claiming to be her daughter.

What happens when Tess invites this unknown into her life? This story is a psychological drama of twists and “sliding doors” dealing with betrayal and heartache, affairs and incest; addressing issues of adoption, abortion, and the ability and inability to forgive; shining a light on the forever haunting challenge to learn from one’s mistakes, and boldly exposing the everyday decisions that dramatically ambush people’s lives.
