Chocolate Kisses and Love Filled Wishes: Easter on Kissing Bridge Mountain Linda West

"Adorable, uplifting, and enchanting! The best romance I've read in years! I want to move to Kissing Bridge and live in their world. I loved both the first two in the series but this might be the best yet!!!!"

S. Stevens Kindle Good Books

The final book in the #1 Best Selling Series!

A wonderful feel good clean and wholesome romance. In part three of the series on Kissing Bridge Mountain we meet Brad's youngest sister Kacey. Summer and Brad are slated to get married but things go awry in Kissing Bridge! Brad's younger sister, snowboarding champion, Kacey Anderson is forced to come home to heal from a bad accident. After being told she can no longer compete she begins to train at her home while still missing her beloved Olympic gold medalist Brody Jenkins. Against doctor's orders she begins to regain her strength in the hopes of competing in the 2018 Olympics. When a young Climate Change activist enlists her help to bring awareness to the cause, Kacey begins to think that her future may be much different than she imagined. Summer is forced back to LA to finish off a contract when the worst blizzard in decades hits her hometown. Unable to return she can only suffer as she here's a fate worse than she can ever imagine is unfolding back home in Kissing Bridge Mountain. Against all odds, love always seems to bring miracles to Kissing Bridge and this story will leave you believing and having faith in the power of true love.

"I'm so happy to have gotten to read the final book in this series. I so loved the entire set and I'm hoping Ms. West thinks about continuing the lovely town of Kissing Bridge!"
