Aries is a twin. She and her twin, Amethyst grew up in a children's home, and had that one thought of not being able to meet their biological parents. However, their long-lost father comes out of the blue and takes them from their peaceful life and brings them to his academy in the valley where homeless children of all ages train hard daily and are forced to do the most impossible we all would not see today. Every day becomes a struggle for Aries and Amethyst as soon as they learned the ways of the academy--"no mercy". Follow along with the story of Aries and her twin of their daily struggle, starting with inedible slops served in the cafeteria to grief. What can a nine-year-old do to help her sister and her friends break free from Hunter's shadow?
