Catherine Slessor , Managing Editor of The Architectural Review , one of the world's leading architectural magazines, is the coordinating editor of this volume. Being at the forefront of design professionals worldwide, her selection of projects has ensured an invaluable collection of innovative architecture. All projects are illustrated with beautiful photographs, and include informative plans and detailed descriptions. The comprehensive index is organised alphabetically by firm name; the contents include the project categories; and the category divider pages list projects in alphabetical order. Biographical information on featured architects is also provided.
