Based on the story of Job, this Pulitzer Prize-winning play in verse tells the story of a twentieth-century American banker/millionaire who God commands be stripped of his family and wealth but who refuses to turn his back on God. J.B. won the Pulitzer Prize for drama in 1959 and the Tony Award for best play. More important, the play sparked a national conversation about the nature of God, the nature of hope, and the role of the artist in society.
