Mariposa Russell Forsyth
This is a true story of the author's personal connection with a family who suffer the loss of an infant child. He tells of the mysterious and unusual contact between himself and the infant, whom he refers to, here and in his music, as the butterfly...Mariposa in Spanish. The results of that contact are incredible healings with life transforming changes for the author, the parents and others, bringing into focus issues ranging from life purpose to forgiveness. The book includes a special children's section with each chapter to help open the door to dialogue about the grieving process.
