New Years Paul MacPherson

A romantic, passionate novel about a relationship that doesn't always come easy, but is profound, inspiring and genuine. How much would you change your life for a chance at love? For Vic Falco, a divorced father of two, trying to move on would prove to be as difficult as staying married. When a second chance shows up at a local bar, his downward spiraling life is given a chance to sore again. But at what cost? For Megan Davis, a single introvert, loneliness and disappointment have become second nature. Dinner alone at a local bar on New Years Eve starts her life on a roller coaster ride, testing the limits of her strength and determination. Forcing her to decide if the chance of finding love, is worth risking everything.
