Volume Two in the fourth edition of Chadwick's Child Maltreatment series provides an overview of the signs and effects of sexual abuse and psychological maltreatment toward children. The clinical text includes new and revised content on topics that are critical to the effective assessment and treatment of sexually and psychologically abused victims. The clinical portion of the text is accompanied by a photographic atlas in the back of the book, which includes current cases studies and more than 300 images and illustrations that document instances of sexual abuse and equipment used by professionals for documentation.
