Fire, Ice and the Heart Ms Margarita Zubkus

The poems in this book are a special and personal look into the anguished spirit of a woman who has experienced the unjustness of loving too hard. To love and to love completely, unconditionally and without limitations is a thing of fairytales – or is it? Lost love, unrequited love and obsessed love are just some of the pains suffered by us all. To cope, we all find outlets – a way to keep the sanity and carry on with the monotony of everyday life.
